

A person with short brown hair, wearing a dark hooded jacket, is seen from behind, sitting on a log in a misty forest. Sunlight filters through the trees, creating a soft, ethereal atmosphere. The person's hands are tucked into their pockets. The forest floor is covered with fallen leaves and some green plants.

*He said to them,
“Come away by yourselves
to a remote place and rest for a while.”*

FOR THE PASTOR

1 PETER 5:1-4

Join us at Lake Sallateeska

Volunteer mission teams have worked alongside our staff to renovate the family cottage into a newly designed environment for pastors to use privately or to bring their families. Renovations include an updated living room, kitchen, and bedrooms.

Beautiful Lake Sallateeska offers fishing and boating, hiking, archery, and an indoor pool. Pastors are invited to come for uninterrupted time praying and planning for future ministry.

Camp Manager Jacob Kimbrough and the staff look forward to your visit. To check availability, contact Jacob at JacobKimbrough@IBSA.org or 618-318-9424.

“I pray this place becomes a spiritual retreat for many pastors. While they are here, may their heart and mind will be filled with the presence and peace of God.”

Pastor David Smith
First Baptist Church, Grayville

Our newly remodeled apartment is specifically for pastor retreats, with a spacious living area, a full kitchen, new bathroom/shower, and bedroom. An adjacent bedroom has bunk beds for the pastor's family.

Streator Camp is a picturesque property with walking trails, fishing, and outdoor recreation. The camp is minutes away from two state parks.

Camp Manager Anthony Heathcoat is ready to host you. To check availability, contact Anthony at AnthonyHeathcoat@IBSA.org or 815-992-5947.

“Every time I have come home from a pastor’s retreat, I have felt renewed and refreshed for ministry to my church and family, and in my own walk with the Lord. I look forward to those retreats every year.”

Eric Brown
Brainard Avenue Baptist Church, Metro Chicago

WHAT TO KNOW ABOUT PASTOR RETREATS

- Retreats are offered free to pastors and paid staff of cooperating IBSA churches and church plants.
- Retreats are usually for one night. Availability may be limited during peak seasons.
- Pastors are limited to one pastor/family retreat per year at each facility, unless special permission is offered by camp managers or IBSA.
- Meals are not provided, but each residence has a fully equipped kitchen. Local restaurants are convenient to both properties.
- Offering personal and family retreats to our pastors is important to IBSA. Feel free to share with camp managers or IBSA leadership suggestions to make this ministry more effective in the future.

Visit IBSA.org/camps for details on both facilities.
